b) Re question of ~~draft~~ exporting jail made articles in the Bombay Presidency pending address, and the file (Pub. 25-22) is marked to the Committee for discussion in the Council as per Devani's minute—

b) It does not appear to be usual to advertise the jail made articles in any newspaper or other publication because even in both the cases it is a question of cost and the principle of competition with private firms—which is not advocated by the Indian Jail Committee. The quality of the jail made articles should perhaps be known by own advertisement. The Govt. Depot. of stationery should indeed rely upon the quality of their supplies—
